

The Central Interior Rural Division of Family Practice's Tick Tock Find Us A Doc Facebook Page Commenting Policy

Guidelines for Commenters

The Tick Tock Find Us a Doc Facebook page is an online contest platform for the general public, and we encourage constructive and open discussion among followers.

Some commenting guidelines:

Note that this is a PUBLIC Facebook page and as such, both name and comments will be visible publically.

To encourage constructive discussion, please...

- Be polite.
- Respect other people who are posting comments.
- Stay on topic.

The CIRD reserves the right to remove any comments or delete any posts that are defamatory in nature, involve personal attacks or attacks on organizations, or include offensive, inappropriate language. Personal information, spam, or other may be removed without notice by the administrators.

Please use your best judgment in what is appropriate or inappropriate to post.

Please note: In commenting, you have agreed to abide by the policy above. This policy can change without notification.
