

Congratulations!

Dr. Christopher Collins, BCCFP 2019 My Family Doctor Award Recipient

Dr. Christopher Collins is a graduate of St. Bartholomew's and the Royal London in England. He has been a Family Physician in Nanaimo for 11 years and is raising four young children in the community. A founding board member of the Nanaimo Division of Family Practice, he has also served as a faculty member for the Nanaimo Residency Program.

In addition to his Family Practice, he is the medical lead for Snuneymuxw Physician Services (an indigenous community based primary care group) and provides care for patients at Options for Sexual Health. Dr. Collins passion is "learning from my patients, understanding and advocating for their beliefs and wishes."
