CIR Division News

A GP FOR ME

- Through partnered efforts with the Interior Health Authority, 13 MOAs and 5 physicians completed the San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training.
- FETCH <http://cariboochilcotin.fetchbc.ca/> currently has 550 community health resources.
- Our recruitment team has been busy growing the locum list to 70 locum contacts.
- The CIRD has 5 recruitment videos <https://www.divisionsbc.ca/CIRD/home>
- The physician coverage program has assisted in 8 locum placements and has established a contact list of over 70 potential locums.
- A financial calculator was created to be used as a recruitment tool. It demonstrates the benefits of practicing medicine in a rural vs. urban area. The calculator is posted on the CIRD website and is sent out to potential recruits.

CYMHSU

- CYMHSU Collaborative that was prototyped in the Interior Region continues to spread across the province and now includes over 2,400 members and 64 local action teams.
- The Cariboo Action Team is supporting Calvin Dubray, the Principal of Marie Sharpe Elementary, in developing a Trauma-Informed Toolkit.
- Marie Sharpe piloted a trauma-informed approach and had great success in 2014-2015 school year. The toolkit will provide resources and implementation guidelines to other schools interested in adopting this approach to instruction.
- The toolkit will be completed by March 2017 and a presentation on the trauma-informed school will be done at an upcoming conference.

TICK TOCK

TICK TOCK FIND US A DOC Regional Physician
 Recruitment Campaign is LIVE!

The TICK TOCK FIND US A DOC Regional Physician Recruitment Campaign was created to involve the residents of the region in assisting the Central Interior Rural Division (CIRD) of Family Practice in finding potential candidates that want to practice medicine in our region.

- This one of a kind recruitment campaign gives residents the opportunity to get involved and make a positive change to our current and future healthcare.
- www.ticktockfindusadoc.com
- Win prizes valued at up to $3000! There are three ways of participate – by partaking in our social media campaigns and/or by providing leads for qualified physicians that end up signing a contract. For more information visit:
- The campaign launched November 2016 and wraps up December 2017.
- All campaign prizes are funded through sponsorship from local individuals and businesses.

LIKE and SHARE for the opportunity to WIN amazing weekly prizes.
