

Carefiniti, North Vancouver

Carefiniti Medical Clinic is currently looking for walk-in and full time coverage. Shifts are available immediately.

Carefiniti Medical Clinic is a multidisciplinary clinic where we offer both full service family practice and walk in services. Our patient base consists of young professionals, families with young children, and seniors.

We are currently looking for locums to cover shifts for walk-in coverage or on a regular basis. We are also looking for any GP or Specialist that is interested in relocating their practice or just wants to do few shifts a week.

We offer a bright, modern clean office environment with street level entry. Lots of free parking is available to all physicians and patients. We have fast, friendly and knowledgeable Patient Care Coordinators, which will make your work here enjoyable and efficient.

Interested physicians please contact Pasha or Bally Singh by email. b.singh@carefiniti.ca for further information.
