

BRITISH COLUMBIA
CENTRE for EXCELLENCE in HIV/AIDS

HIV Prevention Online Course

All you Need to Know about HIV Chemoprophylaxis

This FREE course is designed to allow learners to access up-to-date knowledge on the use of HIV pre- and post-exposure chemoprophylaxis for HIV prevention. The course is informed by new BC-CfE pre- and post-exposure prophylaxis guidelines and will offer new skills and knowledge applicable to clinical practice and quality patient care.

Course Modules

Modules
1	Background to HIV Prevention
2	Occupational and Non-Occupational Post-Exposure Prophylaxis (PEP)
3	HIV Exposure in Sexual Assault
4	Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP)
5	Antiretroviral use for HIV Prevention
6	Strategies for Risk Reduction in HIV Prevention
7	Case Studies

Course Access

REGISTER TO THE HIV PREVENTION COURSE

Accreditation

This Self-Learning program has been certified by the College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 7.0 Mainpro+ certified credits

For additional information about the online course, accreditation, or any of our educational programs, please contact education@cfenet.ubc.ca; 604-682-2344, ext. 63219

British Columbia Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS
608–1081 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6Z 1Y6
+1 (604) 806-8477
<http://cfenet.ubc.ca>

