

PRIMARY CARE INDIGENOUS CULTURAL SAFETY (PC-ICS)

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT PLAN: SOUTH, CENTRAL, AND NORTH ISLAND ENGAGEMENT

Primary Care Strategy (PCS), Medical and Academic Affairs, and the Cultural Safety Program is partnering on the design of culturally safe and Indigenous specific anti-racism Learning and Development Plans for Primary Care in alignment with the Coast Salish, Nuu-chah-nulth and Kwakwaka'wakw cultural families, Metis, Inuit and Urban/Away From Home Populations.

WHO?

Medical Staff/Healthcare Professionals, Allied Healthcare Professionals, and Administrative Staff at Island Health Owned and Operated Primary Care Sites

WHAT?

You are invited to contribute to the design of an ICS learning and development resource toolkit in a four hour engagement session.

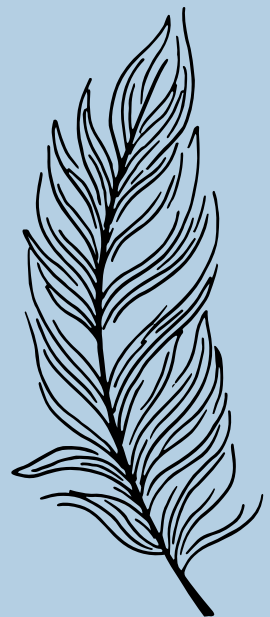

WHEN AND WHERE?

South Island Engagement:
February 13th, 2023 9-1pm Royal Jubilee Hospital,
Memorial Pavilion (Lunch to be provided)

Central Island Engagement:
February 15th, 2023 9-1pm, Trillium Lodge,
Parksville/Virtually (Lunch to be provided for In-Person)

North Island Engagement:
February 17th, 2023, 9-1pm, hosted online.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, AND PRE-REGISTRATION PLEASE EMAIL
NO LATER THAN FEB 10TH, 2023

Nipawi Gladue: steven.gladue@islandhealth.ca

Attendee list to be reviewed for appropriate representation

