

PORT ALBERNI

PRIMARY CARE NETWORK

URBAN INDIGENOUS COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTRE

An Urban Indigenous Community Health Centre in the city centre will address the social determinants of health and the prevention of acute illness among low-income, street-entrenched, and Indigenous priority populations in the downtown core. This approach proactively promotes wellness in vulnerable and underserved populations.

why?

Aligns with PCN Attributes:

Same Day Access, Culturally Safe Care, Extended Hours, Virtual Care, Comprehensive Care, Coordinated Care and Clear Communication.

RESOURCES NOTIONALLY APPROVED:

- 1 Physician
- 2 Nurse Practitioners
- 2 Registered Nurses 1 Licensed Practical Nurse
- 2 Social Workers
- 1 First Nation Navigator
- 1 Knowledge Keeper
- 0.2 Clinical Lead
- 1 Midwife
- 1 Occupational Therapist
- 1 Physical Therapist

*Allied Health Positions are interchangeable. Space allowing, additional FP or NP contracts may be added

Attachment Target: 2100

PLANNED DATE:

Year 2, 2024

Photo credit: All Nations Room at the North Island Hospital