Dr. Chris Morwood

Chris has practiced family medicine in Powell River for 10 years. He and his partner Leta moved back to the Coast for the medical community and life-style. As a family physician, Chris focuses on prevention and encouraging healthy habits early in life. An avid cyclist, Chris has spearheaded projects for introducing bike lanes, teaching school-age kids cycling and organizing active transportation events in the community

Erin Berukoff - NP

Erin has been practicing as a Family Nurse Practitioner for 4 years having had prior experience in emergency and acute care nursing since 2002. Her focus is on CDM/self-management, older adult care, woman's health and caring for the socially complex and vulnerable population. She can be found tying skates at the rink for her 2 daughters, hitting the ice herself for some hockey or at the Cross-fit gym on most days. Her and her family enjoy hiking, fishing and beach days at Savary Beach.

Dr. Sally Watson

Sally Graduated in Manchester, England. The family moved to Powell River in 2007 with a sense of adventure. In 2016 she joined Family Tree Health where she enjoys providing team based care. Away from the office you may find her at the youth clinic or with the Division of Family Practice, working on projects to improve health care in Powell River. When not working Sally is an outdoor enthusiast, actively enjoying mountain biking, hiking, skiing and wind-surfing with the family.

Dr. Leta Burechailo

Leta is a Family Physician who has loved living and working in this beautiful region for 13 years. Her profession work has recently diversified to include a focused practice in adolescent and emerging adult care, community-based Youth Clinic work, several multi-partner youth health promotion projects, directorship with the Powell River Division of Family Practice and collaboration with local elementary and high schools to deliver sexual health education.

Dr. Chris Naylor

Chris is excited to have moved to Powell River last year with his family after working and living in the Yukon for the last 7 years. Other than full service family medicine, he has a passion for providing comprehensive maternity care and also an interest in healthcare technology. He shares his medical practice with his wife Amy. He's excited about the gardening potential the coast brings and is enjoying exploring our beautiful beaches, trails and waterways with his wife and two young children.

Dr. Amy Sawchuk

Amy is thrilled to be back in her home town of Powell River after working and living in the Yukon for the last 7 years. She enjoys the diversity of full service family medicine and sharing a practice with her husband, Chris Naylor. Her passion is for maternity care and looks forward to growing this practice again. When not busy in medicine she is challenged by raising her two children, spending time with her extended family here and exploring the great outdoors that Powell River surrounds her with.
